CONFRONTING OUR WORKING EXPERIENCE WITH THE LIFE OF GIANCARLO RASTELLI
(Parma, June 25, 1933 - Rochester, February 2, 1970)
A CARDIAC SURGEON FULL OF PASSION FOR THE HUMAN BEING

What enables us to sustain our job is reaffirmed and awakened by the example of doctors who faced medicine as a responsibility, as a call, as a vocation. Giancarlo Rastelli was a witness of such a way of being a surgeon.

Is this mission impossible today?
